Dear praying friends,

At WAVE we finished our study on the “I Am” statements in the gospel of John. It was really a blessing for us all to meditate and discuss these, and so important for those who don’t know Jesus personally yet. Pray as Marjorie and I decide on what to teach next, that the Lord guides us into His will and plan for the women in Viana.

Fabiano (in green sweater in the photo), a surfer who we met some time ago, joined us for the last couple of Sundays. He said he really was at peace here and we could see the Lord was touching his heart. He is going through a very hard season in his personal life and is leaning into God. Pray for wisdom for Marcelo and Nuno, as he seeks them for help. Also that the seeds planted take root and grow.

Our relationship with the NGO in Viana has been developing and we can see how the Lord is blessing it as they seek us and honor our partnership to bring justice into the place we live in. Many around us are being stirred with generosity as they are made aware of specific needs and it’s beautiful to see how the light of Jesus breaks through darkness as we take simple steps of obedience. Pray the Holy Spirit continues to guide us and that He touches the heart of all who interact with us as we love like Jesus does.

We are praying and planning a special event for couples. We would love you to pray with us in this initial stage: for the Lord’s guidance on which material to use, how to structure it, and also for the couples of both Viana and Porto churches, that the Holy Spirit works in their hearts.

In His strength,
Nuno, Gila, Leonor and Diogo
