Dear praying friends,

How are you all doing?

Life here is going on as the Father leads. On Sundays some people like to come and gather in person at our home, others prefer connecting through Zoom. We have His peace as we keep doing what He called us to do and these are perfect times to live out the truths of His word!

Our hearts ache for those who walked away, and this was something the Lord brought to our minds as we entered a season of fasting and prayer. So join us praying for these brothers and sisters, that the enemy doesn't steal the seed planted and that the Holy Spirit draws them back to the Father: Duarte, Sãozinha, Anselmo, Assunção, Rúben, Sandra, Mafalda.

We started a new season in our women's gathering and we had a sweet time together (some in zoom, others here at home). We are very thankful for new women joining (from different walks of faith) and for honesty as we lay our fears and struggles at the feet of Jesus. Pray that as we learn from Jesus teachings in the sermon on the mount we may all be transformed and live as citizens of His kingdom, rooted in His love.

(Gila, Vera, Rita, Susana and Tabea at the end of the meeting)

We have finished our studies on the book of Romans and we are moving on to 1st Corinthians now. Everything in our community life at the moment points to a transition, a change of season. Even the time of year seems appropriate (don't you love how God works in the details?!). As we look to those who clung to the Lord and grew their roots deep, we realize He is pruning, building a foundation, clean, firm. Pray with us as we make decisions in these next couple of months, that the Holy Spirit continues to guide our steps and that we may walk side by side with the Father. Pray for courage and boldness to do exactly as He leads!

Unless the LORD builds the house, its builders labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchmen stand guard in vain. (Psalm 127)

In His strength,

Nuno, Gila, Leonor and Diogo
