Dear praying friends,

How are you doing?

We are well, by God's grace. Challenges continue, but so does the Father's faithfulness.

The restrictions due to the virus have pushed us to have our meetings only through Zoom. We are grateful for technology and that almost every person in our community is able to connect.

Please pray that in these difficult times people draw near to the Father.

Brazilina (talking with Nuno in the photo) is a widow from our community. Her husband passed away a couple of months ago and her only daughter lives in Canada. She is very lonely and faces a lot of health issues. Please keep her in your prayers.

Nuno's father, Carlos, is now at home recovering from heart surgery and covid. We praise God for holding him through this season, though he doesn't recognize it. Please pray the Holy Spirit works in his heart and mind and brings him to that place of surrender.

We've asked this before, but our hearts weep for those who are wandering lost, dead in their sin. So would you continue to pray for those who left our community and fellowship. Pray against all the schemes of the enemy, and that the Holy Spirit brings them close to Jesus.

Nuno and I celebrated our 21st wedding anniversary last week. As we looked back we couldn't stop thanking the Lord for His mercy, grace and love towards us. It is only because of Him that we are here today, with Leonor and Diogo. Pray for our marriage and family, that the Lord accomplishes His purposes through us for His glory.

In His strength,

Nuno, Gila, Leonor and Diogo
