

Dear praying friends,

Thank you for praying with us and for us! I'm feeling much better, my ribs are almost as good as new. Truly this time that I was forced to be still was a blessing. And I know the Lord just spared me from the pain. I almost didn't need medicine for pain. The Lord worked in my heart during this time, and although I still am not able to put everything in words, I just know my heart is softer and my sight is sharper. Sometimes we need just to be still, know he is God and watch Him work! Join us in praising Him for His loving kindness towards us!

We had our women's meeting last Saturday and as always we could testify the work of the Holy Spirit in everyone's life. Please keep praying for these women as they grow in their knowledge of the Lord. That during trials they may cling to the Father and trust Him completely. Please continue to pray for salvation for husbands!

Sundays have been just sweet, enjoying each others company and the presence of the Lord. We have been having extended times of prayer and we are witnessing the work of the Holy Spirit in people's hearts. And it is beautiful to see the Lord using everyone to minister to each other as we share testimonies, pray or read scripture. Pray for deeper understanding of the truth, our identity in Christ and the purpose He has for each one of us here.

We are planning a weekend of prayer before Easter, possibly in a place in town. We just ask you to join us in praying for this time, that the Lord guides us to the place where He wants us to be, that He brings the ones He is already drawing close to Himself, and that the Holy Spirit is free to move in our midst, bringing conviction and salvation. This is just a pivotal season. He is calling us to be wide awake, wait on Him, be aware of how He is moving and come along.

In His strength,
Nuno, Gila, Leonor and Diogo
