Happy
New Year!

Ending the Year!!

We ended up the end of the year very active. In the beginning of November we had the Bobscars. This is an award program where students dress up like celebrities. The Bobscar students try to accomplish awards for each that has brought the class that had the award. Each student gave out some humorous awards. All the students had a great time and talked about it for weeks.

to recognize accomplishments of the students. The student's the real Oscars, we have a red carpet and each student picture taken, and of course, I'm the master of ceremonies and throughout the year the students accomplish things that will allow them to win a Bobscar. They student that was new to the group this year, the student most guest, the student that's loyal to all the events, the best attendance, and the most outstanding student that was baptized got a baptismal certificate. We also work with next-generation going into the high schools during lunch, bringing pizza, and sharing with the students. Last year it was difficult to meet students because the school was under repairs and we had side. This year we meet in the auditorium and offers a tunity for students to come. We had a slow start but by we were having over 100 students in each of the two lot of the students go to Destrahan high school so it great opportunity for them to invite their friends. We've seen a great deal of interest in students wanting to pursue more spiritual things in their lives.

It is very difficult to wish everyone a happy new year with all the chaos that is going on around the world. Next year is an election year which could bring riots, international crisis, and local terrorism. It is a terrible thing to think about and this is why it is so important to put your faith in Jesus. Before Happy New Year's is Merry Christmas. When you walk with Jesus you have the assurance that no matter what happens Jesus is there with you and to take care of you. So, don't put your faith in politics, governmental leaders, and even spiritual leaders. Put your faith and trust in Jesus and have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
