

BOB'S NEWS

Bobscars!!

November 9 was the Bobscar's. This is an evening where we give awards out to the youth recognizing their accomplishments through the past year. It started six years ago and has grown to an All-Star production. The youth dress up in their best clothes. We have a red carpet for them to walk on and a photographer to take their pictures. We serve dinner then give out the awards. We close up by showing a video of last summer's camp. Everyone had a great time.

Amy Grant!!

I got to meet Amy Grant when she was just starting her career. Her music was played all the time at the Citadel, a Christian nightspot that I started. In November, Amy Grant was playing in New Orleans and a friend of mine got tickets for us. It was great to hear her and reminisce. She looked great for 64 but her voice was not as strong.

Pennsylvania!!

I have friends, Karl and Shelley Sanders, who live in Pennsylvania. They flew me up towards the end of November for Thanksgiving. Of course, our Thanksgiving meal was a feast. We also saw the movies Bonhoeffer and Cabrini. They were both excellent and I recommend them both. They will really build your faith and give you hope. Friday after Thanksgiving, we went to see Longview, one of the homes of the DuPont Brothers. They decorated it for Christmas and it was massive and beautiful. It was also very cold. Saturday was my birthday and they took me to a nice restaurant to celebrate it. I had a fantastic time. It was great to get away and to catch up on old friends and see old sights.

Deacons Christmas For Widows!

The first Saturday in December was our deacon's Christmas party for our widows and widowers. Christmas is a special time of the year that is full of hope and memories and joy. That is also why it is a hard time for individuals who have lost loved ones. So, our Christmas party is a time to make new memories and new joy and to remember the joy of past Christmases. Jim and Sheila Parrie opened up their home and turned it into a Christmas paradise.

Operation Christmas Child!!

In November our youth group participated in Operation Christmas Child. This is where we pack boxes for children around the world who otherwise would not receive a Christmas gift. Our youth packed over 50 boxes and it's great to know that there will be 50 kids blessed with gifts this Christmas.

Youth Christmas Party!!

Our last big event of the year is our youth Christmas party. We have an Ugly Christmas Sweater contest which brings out a lot of creativity. There's lots of food and we end up with a gift swap. Youth bring a pre-wrapped gift worth between $5 and $10 and then the fighting begins. Everybody has a good time.

Thanks!!

I wanted to thank each and every one of you for all your prayers and your support of my ministry. I don't understand how I can continue working with youth except by knowing it has been God's plan for my life. Your prayers are so important to me. This past year has been very difficult financially. One month I was $2,000 short and 2 months I was $1,000 short. When I talked to my director, I was told all the missionaries are having the same problem. It made me realize that all of you must be suffering also because of how bad the economy is. So, I have been praying for you also. If you are able to make an end of the year gift just make it out to: Be One Together; P.O. Box 112; Hiram, GA 30141. Thank you!!
